AFRICAN AMERICANS in PARIS

Spring Break: March 5, 2017 - March 12, 2017

COLLEGE INFORMATION

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Department of African American Studies and Political Science
Course is taught by UF faculty

LEARN about the history of African Americans in France
SHARPEN your appreciation of African American culture through learning and on-site excursions
UNDERSTAND the political experience of African Americans in Paris

PROGRAM

The purpose of this program is to educate students about African American culture, history, and politics in the city of Paris, France. You will write papers, hear lectures, view films, and visit several historic sites of relevance to African Americans in Paris. You will also learn about the many African Americans who left the U.S. and traveled to France to escape American racism. This program will be of interest to anyone interested in learning about the experiences of blacks in Paris.

LOCATION

Paris, France has been called the city of light. It is also a city that many African Americans lived in and pursued careers in the arts, education, and politics.

EXCURSIONS

You will visit historic institutions and sites in and around the city of Paris such as the Assemblée National (Parliament of Paris), Eiffel Tower, the predominantly African Goutte d'Or neighborhood, the Montmartre district, Richard Wright's home in Normandy, and the Versailles Palace, and take a cruise of the River Seine.

HOUSING

You will share rooms in a very nice hotel in the heart of Paris.
