Course Description:

This course focuses on the origins and development of African American Studies. It begins by exploring the purpose and mission of the discipline and the leaders who fought to have it recognized on college campuses during the late 1960s and 1970s. The course also examines AFA's relevance to the academy both then and now. The students will engage in discourse, that examines Africa before and after the Transatlantic Slave Trade and the education we gather from the experiences of the enslaved on board slaving vessels. The course then explores the various disciplines that make up this interdisciplinary study such as history, sociology, anthropology, religion, and sports. By exploring these areas students will gain a foundational knowledge of this rich discipline, delve into current issues that relate to the Black experience, the academy, and larger socio-economic and political issues facing the Black Community. Students will analyze these people, events and concepts through lectures, class discussions, primary source documents, and audio-visual materials.

Note: This syllabus is a general outline of the course, but it is subject to change. I will let you know if modifications are made.

General Education Requirements and Objectives: (H) (WR).

The course fulfills the General Education requirements for the humanities (H) and writing (WR). It also fulfills the Gordon Rule requirement. This means that the major writing assignments will amount to a total of 4000 words, and that students will receive feedback so that they can improve their writing skills.

Upon completing the course, students will:

- Be able to describe the origins and growth of the African American Studies discipline
- Learn about some of the theories and theorists of African American Studies
- Be able to name some of the key people who have shaped the discipline of African American Studies

- Be introduced to various disciplines and their work on the black experience that shaped African American studies
- Analyze some of the social, cultural, political, and economic issues that have shaped the African American experience in North America
- Better understand the history and culture of Africa, the African Diaspora and Africa's influence on America
- Demonstrate an understanding of basic concepts common in discourse about African Americans
- Enhance their critical analysis and research skills.

Required Texts:

Anderson, Talmadge, & Stewart, James, Introduction to African American Studies: Transdisciplinary Approaches and Implications, Imprint Editions, 2007.

Articles will be assigned throughout the semester as well. Students will be expected to access those readings online or using the UF library catalog.

Course Assignments and Assessments:

Discussion Board assignments have firm deadlines for submissions. While most deadlines are 11:59 pm, DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE LAST MINUTE TO SUBMIT WORK AS YOU RISK NOT HAVING YOUR WORK PROPERLY SUBMITTED FOR CREDIT.

Discussion Posts-(15%): When applicable each student is expected to participate in course discussions. You are expected to reply and respond to discussion questions assigned to each module. There are 5 required posts; each post must be a minimum of 150 words in length. (Due: Varies by module)

Please note responses are graded based on:

- Historical content incorporated
- Ability to critically engage the material & support argument with facts/contemporary examples
- Response to at least TWO of your classmates' discussion posts

Research proposal & final submission of paper (25%):

- 1. Proposal 10%: Select a topic and ask a research question related to some aspect of the African American experience. The proposal must include a.) tentative title, b.) a clear research question, c.) an outline, d.) bibliography with no fewer than six references only scholarly books and journal articles will be accepted. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA! The finished product should consist of 300-600 words. (You may change your topic and proposal upon receiving clearance from the instructor) (Due: TBA)
- 2. Paper- 15%: Research and write an informative and organized 1500-1800 word essay- not including the references. The final paper must include a cover sheet and no fewer than 6 references. Your paper will not be accepted if you have not turned in a satisfactory proposal and made a public presentation during your assigned class time. (Date: TBA)

Midterm- (15%) The maybe a midterm which will test your knowledge of various course material and chapters as we progress through the course. (Due: TBA)

Learning in Action: Social-Community Responsibility Project (20%) (1500-1800 words)

One of the missions of AFA is to commit itself to identifying and helping meet the Black community's needs. For this assignment you will conduct research on a UF Black organization. Students will select from Greek organizations or campuses organizations. (Due: TBA)

Projects must provide a detailed analysis of the current state of the organization, its history and how it has served to build community at UF.

Final Exam- (15%) Exam will assess your knowledge of the material engaged over the semester. (Due: TBA

Note: More specific guidelines for writing assignments will be given as their due dates approach.

Make-up exams will be permitted ONLY at the instructor's discretion

Grading Scale

Course Policies (Policies adapted from http://ufonline.ufl.edu/academics/)

You should expect to devote as much time to this class as traditional on-campus students spend on their course work. This means that in addition to time spent on Canvas participating in online activities, students should expect to spend at least 3 hours of study time per credit hour per week. This includes reading materials (textbooks, eTexts, etc.), problem sets, researching and writing papers, and other assignments from your course instructor.

There are also documentaries and films that accompany each weekly module. It is imperative that you view this material as students will be tested on this information too.

Attendance Policy: While you have the flexibility to "attend" class whenever you have time, I encourage you to log in daily as well as sign up to receive Notifications from Canvas to ensure you stay abreast of all due dates and changes to the course.

Communication: Contact me through Canvas. I do my best to respond to your comments/emails in a timely manner during business hours (evenings are excluded). Allow 24 hours during the week for a response to course concerns/emails. Weekends, I do not check email, so it is imperative that you submit any questions to me before noon on Fridays. I will also set-up a Groupme for the class as well.

Written work format and submission:

All assignments should be

- Written in standard English and demonstrate competence of grammar, sentence structure, and paragraph structure
- Typed, double-spaced with Times New Roman, 12 pt. font, 1" margins
- Information with your name, date, and course should be in the top corner, single-spaced, on the first page only or on a cover page
- All work must be properly documented. Students may use APA, MLA, or Turabian.

I will provide feedback on all written assignments; these comments are intended to strengthen your writing skills. They should be taken as constructive feedback, as I am evaluating clarity, content, structure, and sources.

Gordon Rule: "The Writing Requirement (Gordon Rule) ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning." This is a Gordon Rule course with a 4000-word minimum writing requirement. Your writing will be evaluated and you will receive feedback on assignments that are intended to fulfill this writing requirement. You will be evaluated based on grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization.

According to University policy, a C- will not be a qualifying grade for major, minor, Gen Ed, Gordon Rule or College Basic Distribution credit.

Policy on late/make-up work: Given the brevity of the term and the fact that all assignments are known well in advance, LATE WORK IS NOT ACCEPTED UNLESS THERE ARE EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES (i.e. death of a close family member or hospitalization). Documentation will be required to prove those circumstances.

Academic Honesty: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Extra Credit Policy: Extra Credit opportunities are offered during the semester at the instructor's discretion. Reference course modules for specific activities. All extra points earned will be added to a grade the lecturer selects at the end of the term.

Accommodations: Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center (https://disability.ufl.edu/). It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access

GatorEvals

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/
