Course Description:

This course focuses on the origins and development of African American Studies. It begins by exploring the purpose and mission of the discipline and the leaders who fought to have it recognized on college campuses during the late 1960s and 1970s. The class also examines AFA’s relevance to the academy both then and now. The course then explores the various disciplines that make up this interdisciplinary study such as history, sociology, anthropology, religion, and sports. By exploring these areas students will gain a foundational knowledge of this rich discipline, delve into current issues that relate to the Black experience, the academy, and larger socio-economic and political issues facing the Black Community. Students will analyze these people, events and concepts through lectures, class discussions, primary source documents, and audio-visual materials.

Note: This syllabus is a general outline of the course, but it is subject to change. I will let you know if modifications are made.

General Education Requirements and Objectives: (H) (WR).

The course fulfills the General Education requirements for the humanities (H) and writing (WR). It also fulfills the Gordon Rule requirement. This means that the major writing assignments will amount to a total of 4000 words, and that students will receive feedback so that they can improve their writing skills.

Upon completing the course, students will:

- Be able to describe the origins and growth of the African American Studies discipline
- Learn about some of the theories and theorists of African American Studies
- Be able to name some of the key people who have shaped the discipline of African American Studies
- Be introduced to various disciplines and their work on the black experience that shaped African American studies
- Analyze some of the social, cultural, political, and economic issues that have shaped the African American experience in North America
- Better understand the history and culture of Africa, the African Diaspora and Africa’s influence on America
- Demonstrate an understanding of basic concepts common in discourse about African Americans
- Enhance their critical analysis and research skills.

Course Policies (Policies adapted from <http://ufonline.ufl.edu/academics/>)

You should expect to devote as much time to this class as traditional on-campus students spend on their course work. This means that in addition to time spent on Canvas participating in online activities, students should expect to spend at least 3 hours of study time per credit hour per week. This includes reading materials (textbooks, eTexts, etc.), problem sets, researching and writing papers, and other assignments from your course instructor.

There are also documentaries and films that accompany each weekly module. It is imperative that you view this material as students will be tested on this information too.

Attendance Policy: While you have the flexibility to "attend" class whenever you have time, I encourage you to log in daily as well as sign up to receive Notifications from Canvas to ensure you stay abreast of all due dates and changes to the course.

Communication: Contact me through Canvas. I do my best to respond to your comments/emails in a timely manner during business hours (evenings are excluded). Allow 24 hours during the week for a response to course concerns/emails. Weekends, I do not check email, so it is imperative that you submit any questions to me before noon on Fridays.

Written work format and submission:

All assignments should be

- Written in standard English and demonstrate competence of grammar, sentence structure, and paragraph structure
- Typed, double-spaced with Times New Roman, 12 pt. font, 1" margins
- Information with your name, date, and course should be in the top corner, single-spaced, on the first page only or on a cover page
- All work must be properly documented. Students may use APA, MLA, or Turabian.

I will provide feedback on all written assignments; these comments are intended to strengthen your writing skills. They should be taken as constructive feedback, as I am evaluating clarity, content, structure, and sources.

Gordon Rule: "The Writing Requirement (Gordon Rule) ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning." This is a Gordon Rule course with a 4000-word minimum writing requirement. Your writing will be evaluated and you will receive feedback on assignments that are intended to fulfill this writing requirement. You will be evaluated based on grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization.

According to University policy, a C- will not be a qualifying grade for major, minor, Gen Ed, Gordon Rule or College Basic Distribution credit.

Policy on late/make-up work: Given the brevity of the term and the fact that all assignments are known well in advance, LATE WORK IS NOT ACCEPTED UNLESS THERE ARE EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES (i.e. death of a close family member or hospitalization). Documentation will be required to prove those circumstances.

Academic Honesty: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Extra Credit Policy: Extra Credit opportunities are offered during the semester at the instructor's discretion. Reference course modules for specific activities. All extra points earned will be added to a grade the lecturer selects at the end of the term.

Accommodations: Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access
