Catalog Description:

Course Description: This course examines major themes in African American history from the early seventeenth century to the late nineteenth century. This period covers several pivotal moments in African American history, including 1619, the first year Africans landed on Virginian soil, the Middle Passage, the development and eventual dissolution of the Atlantic slave trade, African and Native American encounters, and the Civil War. While covering the broad expanse of African American history, this course will also focus on the history of African and African American healing traditions and medicine, beginning in West Africa and ending in the U.S. Five sections will cover an introduction to Black studies, African History, and the history of Medicine, pre-colonial West Africa and the Middle Passage, the Atlantic world, and two units on the U.S.

Course Objectives:

1. Explore the diverse history of African Americans in the United States
2. Describe major themes in African American history before the twentieth century
3. Interpret documents and other forms of evidence in their historical context
4. Formulate and support historical questions
5. Employ multiple forms of evidence and articulate a well-structured historical argument
6. Conduct original research and develop a substantial research paper
7. Engage in an ongoing process of writing and revision and report orally on research

Required Books:

Stephanie E. Smallwood, Saltwater Slavery: A Middle Passage from Africa to American Diaspora (Harvard University Press, 2008).

Rana A. Hogarth, Medicalizing Blackness: Making Racial Difference in the Atlantic World, 1780-1840 (University of North Carolina Press, 2017).

Daina Ramey Berry, The Price for Their Pound of Flesh: The Value of the Enslaved, from Womb to Grave, in the Building of a Nation (Beacon Press, 2017).

Deirdre Cooper Owens, Medical Bondage: Race, Gender, and the Origins of American Gynecology (University of Georgia Press, 2017).

REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION

Attendance and Class Participation: Students are expected to attend all classes and are allowed four unexcused absences. In other words, you can miss four classes and do not have to tell me. If you miss more than four classes, I will drop your final grade from an A to an A-, or a B+ to B, a C+, etc. Moreover, if you are not in class, you cannot learn the material no matter how well your classmate can summarize the main points of the discussion.

Q.Q.C. Worksheets: Questions, Quotations, Comments. Students will prepare a question, quotation, and comment for each class from that day's reading. Students will respond to each reading with a Q.Q.C. (3-6 sentences, Max.) and bring them to each class prepared to share. Students will collect these worksheets in a folder and turn them in at the end of the semester as a portion of their participation grade. Q.Q.C. Worksheet Folder due in class on Wednesday, December 7.

Primary Source Essay 1 – Africa: The purpose of this assignment is to critically analyze two primary sources from this section's readings and write a three-page essay (750 words). The first page of your essay should be an introduction paragraph with your thesis and the documents' historical context.

The body of your essay will analyze the source. You must quote the source, but make sure that you do not use too many. I want to read your interpretation of the source. Try not to quote longer than a sentence. To write a critical essay, you must critically read the source and develop a theme and a thesis. For example, as you are reading, ask yourself, what is the author's perspective? Keep in mind the author's perspective race, class, gender, and political ideology, liberal, conservative, or radical. You should also think about the language and tone of the document. Additional in-class work will help develop your skills in writing summaries, context, and developing historical questions.

Your conclusion should summarize your essay, restate your position, and if you have space, you can link your essay to a current issue related to the themes of the course. Upload your first primary source essay to Canvas on Friday, September 16, by 11:59 pm.

Primary Source Essay 2 – Atlantic: The requirements for your second essay are listed directly above. Upload your second primary source essay to Canvas on Friday, October 7, by 11:59 pm.

Primary Source Essay 3 – U.S.: The requirements for your third essay are listed directly above. Upload your third primary source essay to Canvas on Friday, October 21, by 11:59 pm.

Research Paper Proposal Outline: Choose a research topic related to any matter discussed in the course. Do preliminary research on the topic and write a two-page summary describing what you will address in your final paper. In your proposal, include an original argument and the sources you plan to use (five primary and three secondary sources). Make sure you choose a topic you are passionate about because you will not be allowed to change your topic. Upload to canvas on Friday, November 11 at 11:59 pm.

Research Paper: Students must write a well-researched, organized, and informative eight-page paper (2000 words) on any theme or topic we discussed in the course. Your final paper must include a minimum of five (5) primary sources and three (3) secondary sources such as books, journal articles, newspapers, and magazines. Students will craft an original argument/thesis statement which you will support throughout your paper. Please use the University of Chicago Style <https://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html>. Upload your paper to Canvas on December 10 by 5 pm.

CLASSROOM DECORUM

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

COMMUNICATIONS

Please allow 24-48 hours during the week. I do not check work emails during the weekend, so plan ahead. Emails sent on the weekend will be answered the next Monday or Tuesday. Again, manage your crisis by being prepared—do not email the night before a deadline as you probably will not get an answer. If you email me the morning of class, you will not get a reply until later that day or the next day.

ATTENDANCE POLICY AND MAKE UP POLICY

Class attendance is expected. Each unexcused absence will result in a 10-point reduction in the final grade. Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>) and require appropriate documentation. Students who can demonstrate that they were unable to submit an assignment by the deadline due to an excused absence and who can provide appropriate documentation for the absence will be given a reasonable period of time to make up the late work.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HONOR CODE

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel.

COVID 19 STATEMENT

Face-to-Face

In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions.

- You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings. Following and enforcing these policies and requirements are all of our responsibility. Failure to do so will lead to a report to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution.
- This course has been assigned a physical classroom with enough capacity to maintain physical distancing (6 feet between individuals) requirements. Please utilize designated seats and maintain appropriate spacing between students. Please do not move desks or stations.
- Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
- Follow your instructor's guidance on how to enter and exit the classroom. Practice physical distancing to the extent possible when entering and exiting the classroom.
- If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms (Click here for guidance from the C.D.C. on symptoms of coronavirus), please use the U.F. Health screening system and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class. Click here for U.F. Health guidance on what to do if you have been exposed to or are experiencing Covid-19 symptoms.
 - Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work. Find more information in the university attendance policies.
